

BOK CORPUS

BOK Résistance - February 2021

|                |                                                                            |
|----------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Mustafa | The Homeless Cup: football as an anchor point of life                      |
| Mel     | Meditating in your daily life                                              |
| Sérigne | Boldness as a tool for resilience                                          |
| Taoufik | Multiplying your sources for better information                            |
| Clara   | Passing on family values from father to daughter, without speaking         |
| Hanane  | Defending our atypical child against educational institutions, as a mother |
| Yasmine | How to get out of a toxic relationship with social media?                  |
| Thibaut | How to inhabit empty spaces: the example of the old Atlas Brewery          |